2. Permission under the Newspapers Regulation is necessary only in the case of papers "containing news, or comments on public news". The Bulletin in question will, it is stated, confine its news and notes to matters connected with Co-operation. No permission is therefore, strictly speaking, necessary, but following the precedents of some similar cases, formal sanction may perhaps be given.

3. There are, however, other matters in this case which require consideration & disposal in the Branch concerned (Banking. Br II). The Registrar says that the Editor has undertaken to be guided by him entirely as regards the publication of the journal, that it is intended to be subsidised from the budget of the Deptt, & that the Registrar will officially sanction the purchase of the publication by

4 The file relating to the proposal of the Registrar to start a Cooperative Journal for Mysore is put up.

The Registrar has not been able to carry out the proposal though ample provision is being made for the purpose year after year - his excuse being that he is short handed. I hope that a private agency has come up. I take the editing of the Journal & the Registrar recommends permission being granted to them as may be seen. The Registrar suggests that the Journal has to be subscribed for how long & how much is not stated ~~Perhaps~~ The exact

Sir,

I have the honor to send the enclosed application of Mr. K.S. Krishna Iyer for permission to edit a Co-operative Bulletin in ~~Kanarese~~ KANNADA monthly for favour of orders.

2. For sometime past I have been trying to get started a monthly publication of the kind by private effort as far as possible. Amongst several gentlemen whom I consulted on the subject Mr. K.S. Krishna Iyer appears the most suitable for the enterprise. He is a History Graduate of the Madras University and is the proprietor of the Irish Press in Bangalore. He is young, energetic and enthusiastic about Co-operation.

3. My department will have to supply him with much of the matter. In fact Mr. Krishna Iyer has undertaken to be guided by me entirely as regards the publication. I shall also officially sanction the purchase of the publication by Co-operative Societies in Mysore.
